7.1.8 Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socio-economic and other diversities.

The college organises and conducts several activities to build and promote an environment for ethical, cultural, linguistic and regional values among the college students and staff. The students and staff along with the management have a good time during the cultural, religious and regional festivals.

The college organises various NSS (National Service Scheme), NCC (National cadet Corp) activities like Blood Donation camps and cleaning of public parks with the principal objective of developing the character and personality of the students through voluntary community services.

Motivational lectures of eminent people from various fields are also arranged for the all-round development of the students and to make them responsible citizens and also to imbibe the national values of social-communal harmony and countrywide integration. Besides educational and cultural activities, the college has built up umpteen robust infrastructures for a variety of sports activities for the physical and mental well-being of the students.

The college leaves no stone unturned to improve the Communication and Soft Skills of the students. Various activities including Seminars, Fresher Party, Teacher's Day, Orientation and Induction program, Rallies, Plantation drive, Youth day celebrations, Women's day celebrations, Yoga day, Sankranti Sambraile, etc are celebrated with great enthusiasm in the college campus. Guest Lectures and Workshops are organised to keep students and faculty informed about the latest requirements of the companies and make them updated in terms of knowledge and skills. In this way, the institution strives its best in offering an inclusive environment for all with tolerance and harmony closer to cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic diversities.

The college organises and celebrates various National Festivals like Independence Day, Republic Day, Gandhi Jayanti, National youth Day. To inculcate the spirit of patriotism and in reminding the students about importance of freedom, democracy and peace these festivals are celebrated with patriotic fervour and gaiety every year.

REPORT

This week-long attire plan offers a mix of comfort, elegance, and cultural connection, ensuring both rejuvenation and self-expression.

Denim Begin the week with versatile denim, like jeans, a jacket, or a jumpsuit. Pair with comfortable cotton tops for a casual, relaxed, and effortlessly stylish look. Black and White Add elegance midweek with timeless black-and-white outfits. Choose a monochrome dress, a classic black blazer with a white shirt, or playful patterns like stripes or polka dots. Handloom Celebrate sustainability with handloom fabrics like khadi, cotton, or linen. Opt for kurtas, sarees, or dresses in earthy tones to stay cool and connected to tradition. Ethnic Add a cultural flair with ethnic wear such as sarees, anarkalis, or kurtas. Bright colors, embroidery, and traditional accessories can uplift your spirit and style. Patriotic Conclude the week by honoring your roots with outfits inspired by the national flag's colors. Incorporate saffron, white, green, or blue in sarees, kurtas, or casual wear, blending pride with fashion.

REPORT

Vasant Panchami is a festival of Hindus that marks the beginning of preparations for the spring season. It is celebrated by people in various ways depending on the region. Vasant Panchami also marks the start of preparation for Holika and Holi, which occur forty days later. For many, Vasant Panchami is the festival dedicated to goddess Saraswati who is their goddess of knowledge, language, music, and all arts. She symbolizes creative energy and power in all its forms, including longing and love.
